Company Updates

- CPIC Group and CPIC Life move to new building

On September 28, CPIC Group and CPIC Life held a ceremony marking the relocation of their headquarters to the Southern Bund of Shanghai. On the same day, company management held a ground breaking ceremony for a landmark building in Xintiandi, which, upon its completion, will be the site of the company's global corporate headquarters.

- CPIC Life and CPIC P/C both awarded top rating in regulatory evaluation

On October 14, CBIRC released the results of its 2018 Annual Customer Service Rating of Insurance Companies. CPIC Life and CPIC P/C both won the top AA rating for the 3rd consecutive year.

In the meantime, the Zhuanxiangpei Program of CPIC P/C was included among the top 10 innovations in customer service of property and casualty insurers, and the “Insurance + Healthcare” Smart Service Program of CPIC Life listed among the top 10 innovations in customer service for life/health insurers.

- CPIC offers over RMB500bn in risk protection to 2nd CIIE

On October 22, with the 2nd China International Import Expo (CIIE) around the corner, CPIC formally submitted a package insurance plan for the event to China's National Exhibition Centre (Shanghai). Under the policy, the company will provide extensive risk coverage and integrated risk management solutions to CIIE, involving over RMB500bn in sum assured. The policy covers not only emerging risks such as IPR, import duty and cyber security, but also personal accident of participants and staff of organizers.

CPIC has set up 5 working groups for the event, namely, volunteer service, on-site service, insurance protection, claims management and emergency response so as to provide comprehensive, around-the-clock customer service.
